Bygdelag Build Pride in Heritage

One or two contact people are presented for you in this brochure for over two dozen bygdelag (we often call lags) which affiliate with the national council, Bygdelagenes Fellesraad.

Each lag seeks to preserve and strengthen bonds with its home district or community-of-origin in Norway. (See map). Each one will answer questions about:

- membership
 - newsletter or publication
 - Norway trips sponsored by the lag
 - his/her own annual summer meeting, called a stevne or stemne, and
 - assistance with genealogy searches.
- (Inquire how they operate. Each one may be somewhat different from another.)

Bygdelag are organizations comprised of descendants of emigrants from Norway to North America. A bygd in Norway shared the same dialect in speech, the same ways to prepare food, the same folkways and the same special occasion costumes, called bunader. Many lag serve a larger, regional area.

The national council of bygdelag is called Bygdelagenes Fellesraad which sponsors a web site to help you feel comfortable with the culture of your ancestors and confident that Norway is a very modern country in the 21st century, even though it is proud of its past.

This brochure may be printed (in two formats) at www.fellesraad.com. Check the web for the most current information. The site carries a calendar of events including date/s and places of stevner for the next year or two.

People from Valdres, our oldest group, first met in 1899 and a large celebration was held in Iowa to mark that occasion by all groups in 1999. To date 23 bygdelag have held festive centennials.

In 2016 the Fellesraad hosted its own Centennial Celebration May 5 through May 8 in Brooklyn Center and Minneapolis.

The Fellesraad invites you to use their site to further research your Norwegian connections. Many lags publish newsletters for members that give further information on the annual meetings in America and often include articles about both past and present culture in Norway.

E-mail the.president@fellesraad.com for other questions. Happy searching!
