

Bygdelagenes Fellesraad Bulletin

NORWEGIAN AMERICAN NATIONAL BYGDELAG COUNCIL

Since 1916

December 2005

DECEMBER TV PREMIERE

The TV premiere showing of the film portraying the life of Norway's Crown Princess Martha may be shown on Public Television stations SOON in your area.

Minneapolis/St. Paul Channel 2 will carry the program WEDNESDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 21, at 7 PM. Some of the people who experienced these times share their insights and comments.

You'll remember that Norway was invaded and then occupied by the Nazis of Germany after a surprise attack on its largest harbors April 9, 1940, until 1945. King Haakon VII and his son Crown Prince Olav and the government were in exile in Great Britain.

This film depicts the life of the wife of Crown Prince Olav and the mother of Norway's present monarch, HM King Harald V. Along with her three children, the Crown Princess took sanctuary in the Washington, D.C., area at the invitation of the US president Franklin Delano Roosevelt..

The program the next hour-- at 8 PM December 21 is the St Olaf College Choir, performing in Nidaros Cathedral in Trondheim, Norway. The St. Olaf Choir is re-broadcast Christmas Eve, Sat., December 24 at 8 PM.
